Packaging Made from Plants: Healthy for You, Healthy for the Planet

About PLA
PLA (Polylactide) is a plastic-like resin made from 100% U.S. grown corn, an annually renewable resource. Products made from this bioplastic are biodegradable and have characteristics similar to polypropylene, polyethylene, or polystyrene.

Why put your food in containers made from petroleum-based plastic? Your food comes from nature and so should its packaging!

PLA (CLEAR) CLAMSHELLS

These hinged PLA clamshells are made from 100% U.S. grown corn. With the same look and feel as clear plastic clamshells, our PLA clamshells will completely compost under commercial composting conditions in just 45–60 days.

Showcase your beautifully prepared food. Excellent for delis, salad bars, and bakeries.

- Made from PLA, a corn-based plastic
- Can handle food up to 110° F
- Nontoxic
- As light and strong as plastic
- Great for stacking
- Certified compostable
